World Book Day 2025

I have hijacked this week's newsletter as yesterday it was World Book Day! I want to start by saying a massive thank you to you all for the brilliant costumes that the children came into school wearing—they all looked FABULOUS. Everyone was so excited to see the characters that the children had come dressed as that we had an assembly where all the children performed their best twirls in their outfits for everyone! The staff even joined in.

It was lovely to walk around the school and see all the wonderful book related work that children were completing in classrooms. The staff were also set a challenge of designing their book corners in the theme of a book to celebrate WBD. I have to say that I have seen a very competitive side to some staff and I NEED YOU to help me judge so please keep an eye out on Dojo on Monday 17th to have your vote for the winning display!

I would also like to thank our amazing staff who also went to the effort of joining in too. Have a great weekend, Mrs French xx

You must step in and out of the circle, one foot at a time. Both feet must step into the circle and then out again. No jumping!

The Journey Curriculum

Each week in school we will focus on an area of our Journey Curriculum Map—staff will ensure this is a focus in lessons and children will be asked about their understanding of it across the week. Our focus next week is...

Reminders and Dates for the diary ...

Seeing as we are on a book theme this week, please can I remind everyone that it is the expectation that you should be reading 4 times per week at home and recording this in the reading diaries. Each week in assembly we pick out a reading raffle winner for each key stage and they get to choose a book to keep!
